DO CBSE STUDENTS HAVE AN ADVANTAGE OVER IB STUDENTS IN COMPETITIVE EXAMS?

FOR AIEEE (JEE) IIT'S, NIT'S

- 1 Pass rate of top 6 IIT's is about 0.34% (4000 students cleared / 12 lakhs students who appeared)
- 2 Students mostly go for dummy / integrated school (board does not matter) so that they can give full attention to JEE coaching
- 3 Most successful students come from big coaching centers such as Kota, Hyderabad where they start as young as Grade 7
- 4 Intense preparation pressure on students through these years often leads to physiological & psychological stresses

SOME EYE OPENING POINTS FROM THE RESEARCH REPORT SUBMITTED BY TATA INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES (TISS) TO KOTA DISTRICT ADMINISTRATION

- Kota reported 58 student suicides (2013-2017) excluding attempted suicides.
- Kota ranked highest in the number of suicides linked to failure in exams between 2011-2014 (among 88 Indian cities considered for the study)
- Kota is a teeming 'Prep factory' – every year around 2 lakh students from across the country go to Kota for JEE or NEET preparation
- For engineering students
 - 49% feel nervous, worried and scared
 - 42% respondents said that their friends were worried, nervous or scared
 - 37% students reported being irritable and getting annoyed easily
 - 32% admitted to feeling upset or sad for the most part of the day or for days at a time
 - For Pre-Med Students - 28% students reported feelings of hopelessness and helplessness, 28% students felt worthless and 27% students were worried about failure and 'letting their families down'

- 5 The study reported a large occurrence of sleep-related disorders where students reported feeling constantly tired, feeling sleepy or sleep deprived, facing problems falling asleep or staying awake
- 6 Students also reported indigestion, loss of appetite as well as obesity
- 7 One third of the female students reported menstrual disorders

CONCLUSION : The board doesn't matter. Coaching matters for JEE preparation, which has its own pitfalls

FOR PRIVATE COLLEGES ENGINEERING EXAMS/ MEDICAL/ COMMERCE/ARTS/HUMANITIES

- 1 BITSAT
 - 10+2 from any recognised board (including IB) with PCM/B with 75%
- 2 SRMJEE, VITEEE (ENGINEERING EXAMS)
 - IB students with PCM/B with 60%
- 3 NEET (MEDICAL EXAM)
 - This being a national exam, students from any board are allowed.
- 4 NATA (ARCHITECTURE EXAM)
 - IB and CBSE are in the same category
- 5 CLAT (LAW EXAM)
 - 10+2 from any recognised board (including IB) with 45%
 - Two top NLUs do not accept predicted grades but admission is possible in other NLU's
- 6 NID/NIFT/AIEED/SEAT ETC. (FOR DESIGN COURSES)
 - 10+2 from any recognised board (including IB)
- 7 NPAT, FEAT, SET, UGAT, IPMAT (MANAGEMENT EXAMS)
 - 10+2 from any recognised board (including IB)
- 8 Other state level exams

CONCLUSION :
In general,
IB students can appear
for all competitive exams.
